I welcome this opportunity to say a few words to the Graduating Class of 1977.

I extend to you my heartiest congratulations for your splendid service to our school and express the hope that you will continue to strive to succeed in the future so that each may find in a life well lived his own best development.

Many fine traditions of the past and a renewed spirit have returned to the school and that is to your credit.

May graduation mark for you the beginning of a purposeful life and may you achieve the aim of every Charlestown High School Graduate: Ever to Excel.

God bless you in every effort and endeavor worthwhile.

This yearbook is presented to the Class of "77" with much admiration, and hard work put into it. It was put together by the Yearbook Staff which consisted of 18 Seniors and 1 teacher, and the aide of Mr. James Mansfield—Business Advisor, Robert Goddard, Jean Hanson and William Shields and other Representatives of Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. It was at first a question of who would put the book together, students or teachers, and the answer was the students. It was a chance for us to do something on our own, so we could say we did something besides start trouble during our Senior Year at Charlestown High. Putting the Yearbook together at first was really complicated for us because none of us ever did a Yearbook before; but with the help of our advisor we did it and are proud of the outcome. People had doubts about it and, obviously, as you can see, the book is really a success. All I can say is "Thank you very much" to the seniors who participated and cooperated and also to our advisor, who didn't want his name mentioned, but who deserves most of the credit for putting up with us and helping us in every way possible. We just want him to know that we admire and appreciate everything he did to help us.

We hope you enjoy this book; it was hard and sometimes very nervewracking, but we are satisfied with the outcome and hope you will be too.

NUMBER ONE

*Music goes on into the night
and only I can hear.
I want to be a Rock Star
but no-one seems to care.*

*I try to make people hear
the music I love to play.
They manage to ignore me
and I want to run away.*

*It's nice to be a doctor
people tell me now.
But I have to be a musician
somewhere and somehow.*

*Song after song I've written
It only seemed right.
Day be day my dream grows
into a world so bright.*

*Someday I'm going
to walk on a stage.
Crazy as it sounds
I'll be the newest rage.*

*Someday soon,
my luck will grow.
I'll be number one
Somehow I just know.*

Dear Graduates:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your excellent behavior this year in all of your Senior functions. This has been a trying year for you, with newsmedia, the courts, and people watching your every move. But you proved that your minds and emotions are not to be manipulated like pawns on a chess board. Instead you acted like young adults who realize that the world facing you has a lot more challenges and calls for more greater sacrifices.

Thanking each and everyone of you was impossible, but watching the proud smiles on your parents faces at graduation was good enough for me. I hope that God watches and guides your everystep in whatever the future may bring.

Sincerely yours,

Patrick J. Greatorex
Senior Class Advisor 1977

P.S. It's been a pleasure.
